

BEGINNER1. LESSON #19. EN VOITURE

En voiture :

- Nous voici à Boulogne.

Cherchons maintenant l'immeuble de Marie et Victor.

Ils habitent rue Lafayette, près de la mairie et leur immeuble a une porte bleue.

Voici la mairie... Voici la rue Lafayette.

- Regarde Papa, une porte bleue.
- Je me gare.

Appartement n°11 (onze).

TRANSLATION

In the car :

- We are now at Boulogne.

Let's seek for Marie and Victor's building.

They live rue Lafayette, near the city hall and their building has a blue gate.

Here is the city hall... Here is the rue Lafayette.

- Look, Dad, a blue gate.
- I park the car.

Appartment #11.

In English, door and gate are two different things. They'll be translated with the same word in French : porte.

No new grammatical notion is this lesson. Instead, we have strenghten the vocabulary part.

Voiture (fém.) : car.
Chercher : to look for, to seek.
Maintenant : now.
Immeuble (masc.) : building.
Rue (fém.) : street.
Près de : near.
Mairie (fém.) : city hall.
Porte (fém.) : gate, door.
Bleu : blue.
Garer, se garer : to park.
Appartement (masc.): flat, apartment.

Between 1852 and 1870, Baron Georges-Eugène Haussmann, commissioned by Napoleon III worked on a modernisation program for the city of Paris. The changes were tremendous. The architecture of that (called architecture haussmannienne) still remains as the main architecture of Paris.

Un immeuble haussmannien

Translate in French :

1. Here's Marie's building.
2. Look. The house has a blue door.
3. I park the car.

Translate in English :

1. Nous voici à Paris
2. Elles habitent boulevard Haussmann
3. Achetez onze voitures rouges.
4. Tu habites près de la mairie.

<http://www.frenchbyfrench.com>
<http://www.frenchbyfrench.com/lesson.php?level=beginner1&nb=19>